In addition, the Port of Seattle may regulate limousines at SeaTac International Airport. Operational requirements, chauffeur licensing and penalties are provided.	C 87 L 96
HB 2595	Robertson, Scott	Vehicle Impoundment - Requires that when a police officer orders an impound for the operation of a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license, the registered tow truck operator performing the impound, rather than the police officer ordering the impound, must give written notice of the opportunity for a hearing. At a hearing to contest an impound, in lieu of the impounding officer's personal appearance, the court may consider a written report made under oath by the officer.	C 89 L 96
HB 2604	Silver, R. Fisher, Chopp	Registered Vehicle Owner List - Permits DOL to furnish lists of the registered owners of motor vehicles electronically to commercial parking companies.	Gov Vetoed
HB 2659	Skinner, R. Fisher, Cairnes	Special Fuel Tax Computation - In the absence of records to show otherwise, current statute allows the computation of special fuel tax by presuming miles per gallon based on a vehicle's gross weight. The courts ruled that the state has no right to presume and ruled against the language. This bill restates the language so that, in the absence of operating records, vehicle miles per gallon "must be calculated" using the schedule instead of "presuming" the vehicle miles per gallon contained in the schedule.	C 90 L 96
HB 2660	Cairnes, R. Fisher	Vehicle Fees and Taxes Refund - Requires DOL to automatically issue refunds to persons who overpay their motor vehicle excise tax (MVET) if the amount of the refund is $10 or greater.	C 91 L 96

SHB 2727	K. Schmidt, Blanton	State Infrastructure - Creates two accounts to serve as the structure for a state transportation infrastructure bank. Money from public or private entities or from bonds may be deposited into the accounts. Funds in the accounts are available, through appropriation, to support the issuance of public or private debt, to provide credit enhancement for such debt, for direct loans to public or private entities, or for other purposes that facilitate investment in surface transportation facilities.	C 262 L 96
HB 2729	Sterk, K. Schmidt	Transportation Improvement Board - Makes technical corrections to the Transportation Improvement Board statutes that were amended last session.	C 49 L 96

BILL NO.	PRIME SPONSORS	SUMMARY	FINAL STATUS
HB 2730	McMahan, Sterk, K. Schmidt	City Hardship Assistance Account - Reduces revenue distributed to the account from 2 percent of the city gas tax distribution to 1 percent. ESHB 2832	Chandler, K. Schmidt, Scheuerman	Milwaukee Road Corridor - Authorizes the Department of Transportation (DOT) to grant a franchise to a rail carrier to reinstitute rail service over the Milwaukee Road corridor, running from Ellensburg to Lind. $11.5 million comprised of franchise fees and direct legislative appropriations will be used to construct a new cross-state trail.	C 129 L 96

Obsolete language regarding the setting of the speed limit on the rural interstate at 65 mph is removed, as well as the prohibition of raising the speed limit above 55 mph on the I-5 corridor between Everett and Olympia. Current law would again govern--the speed limit is set to a maximum of 70 mph based on engineering and traffic investigations by the DOT.	C 52 L 96
SSB 5250	Owen, Haugen, Hargrove	Historic Vehicles/Collecting - Allows that cars rebuilt to resemble a certain make and model may be branded as that model year and make (example: a restored 1957 Chevy will be titled as such, even though it was reconstructed in 1996). These cars may also carry the designation of "street rod" on their title. Vehicles constructed from a kit may be titled "street rod," but must clearly disclose that they are replicas.	C 225 L 96
SSB 6078	Heavey, Prince, Owen	Regional Transit Authority Projects - Eliminates current law that requires that local agencies proposing high capacity transit systems prepare a brochure which must be mailed to all voters in the area. This requirement is eliminated but the requirement for a voters' pamphlet is retained. The bill also limits state and federal monies that may be identified as possible funding sources for those state monies authorized for the project and federal monies appropriated for that purpose.	Gov Vetoeed
SSB 6173	Haugen, Schow	Motor Vehicle Dealers - Updates laws regulating recordkeeping and display requirements for motor vehicle dealers. The Department of Licensing (DOL) may not release the names of former car owners unless the car was owned by a governmental entity. DOL is directed to study the types of brands that should be disclosed on a vehicle title. Partial Veto: The Governor vetoed provisions allowing motor vehicle dealers to pass on the costs of title transfers to purchasers.	C 282 L 96 Partial Veto
SSB 6237	Prince, Owen, Wood	Vehicles/Wireless Communications - Changes current law prohibiting the use of a television screen or headset while driving a motor vehicle. STUDY OF AGENCY PUBLICATIONS

The Office of Financial Management is directed to report to the Legislature on state publications, including whether the publications should be distributed by electronic means.

Summary of Governor's Budget Vetoes (ESSB 6251)

1. Superior Court Judges Proviso. The Governor vetoed section 109(4) of the bill, which identified funding for new Superior Court judges in Thurston, Douglas, and Chelan Counties, contingent on passage of SB 6151 and SB 6495. Because the new judgeships were ultimately authorized by the Legislature in a different bill (SHB 2446), the Governor vetoed the proviso, thereby allowing the funding to take effect.
2. Children & Family Services Management Improvement Project. The Governor vetoed a provision requiring allocation of $1.1 million to the Public Policy Institute at The Evergreen State College to direct a management improvement project for the Division of Children and Family Services. The Governor stated his intent to complete the management improvement project while re-directing some of the funding to other issues relating to children and family services. Specifically, the Governor intends to use some of the funds to (1) examine substance abuse and its impact on the delivery of services to families, (2) implement unspecified modifications to the child welfare system; and (3) create a separate licensing function for entities caring for children.

The Governor also vetoed a separate subsection establishing an oversight group for the management improvement project (consisting of the Attorney General, chief of the State Patrol, the Children and Family Ombudsman, and a gubernatorial appointee). The Governor stated his intent to include these persons in a broader oversight group that will include children's services experts from the public and private sector. The legislative advisory group created by the budget bill was retained by the Governor.
3. Family & Children's Ombudsman within the Office of the Governor. The Governor vetoed a proviso that would have required the transferring the Office of Constituent Relations from DSHS to the Governor's office to fund the Family and Children's Ombudsman. The Governor stated his belief the Office of Constituent Relations should not be transferred and that the Ombudsman will be funded without the transfer of the Office of Constituent Relations.
4. Asian-Pacific Economic Conference (APEC). The Governor vetoed a proviso in the Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development that would have required DCTED to allocate $180,000 from its existing budget to supplement private funding for APEC.
5. K-20 Technology Improvements. The Governor vetoed a $12 million appropriation from the Data Processing Revolving Fund as part of the $54.3 million appropriation for the K-20 technology plan (SB 6705).
6. DSHS Capital Needs. The Governor vetoed a $9.9 million reduction in the fiscal year 1996 General Fund Appropriation to the Aging and Adult Services Program in DSHS. This veto will make the funds available for transfer to the Juvenile Rehabilitation and Mental Health Programs for use in capital construction projects (in the absence of a supplemental capital budget). The funds will be used for the reconstruction of Green Hill School and a sewer replacement project at Maple Lane.
7. Human Rights Commission. The Governor vetoed a proviso earmarking $100,000 GF-S to implement HB 2932 (alternative dispute resolution). He also vetoed the bill (HB 2932). In his veto message, he directs the Commission to use the funding to reduce its current backlog of discrimination cases.
8. Child Profile Immunization Tracking System. The Governor vetoed a proviso in the Department of Health earmarking $210,000 for the statewide expansion of the child profile immunization tracking system by July 1, 1997. His veto message directs the department to continue its efforts, with a report to the Legislature due July 1, 1997.

9. Domoic Acid Testing of Shellfish. The Governor vetoed a proviso requiring the Department of Health to use $195,000 from its existing budget to test for the toxin domoic acid in shellfish. The department is expected to continue the testing within the constraints of its current budget.

10. Supervision of Sex Offenders. The Governor vetoed a proviso in the Department of Corrections earmarking $78,000 GF-S for the supervision of sex offenders under SB 6274. The Governor vetoed the proviso because the appropriation is necessary for a different bill, SHB 2545.

11. Life Skills Program at Purdy. The Governor vetoed a proviso requiring the Department of Corrections to maintain funding for the Life Skills program at the women's correctional center at Purdy.

12. Water Quality Permit Fee Program. The Governor vetoed a proviso earmarking $110,000 in the Department of Ecology's existing budget to employ a consultant to develop a water quality permit fee schedule.

13. K-12 Basic Education Salary Allocations (Staff Mix). The Governor vetoed section 503 of the Supplemental Budget, which would have required inclusion of special education staff salaries in the calculation of basic education salary allocations.

14. Health Insurance Benefits. The Governor vetoed section 706 of the budget, which sets the monthly health benefit rate that state agencies and institutions of higher education pay to the Health Care Authority (HCA) for each employee. The legislative budget had lowered the 1997 health benefit rate charged to state agencies and higher education institutions from the $314.51 per employee per month contained in the original budget to $304.31. In addition, section 706 of the budget decreased the appropriation to state agencies commensurate with the lower rate. The veto of section 706 restores the rate to $314.51 and restores the funding to state agencies to pay the higher rate. However, while the veto of section 706 may result in institutions of higher education paying $314.51 per month per employee, the veto does not restore the funding to higher education institutions to pay the higher rate. (The monies appropriated to higher education institutions for health benefits are contained in each institution's section of the budget bill, not in section 706.) As a result, higher education institutions may be required to pay $2.4 million more than is appropriated to them for health benefits.

The health benefit changes in the legislative budget resulted in total savings from all funds of $9.1 million. The General Fund-State portion of the savings was $5.4 million, $2.4 million of which was from higher education institutions and $3.0 million of which was from state agencies. The Governor's veto lowers the total savings by $6.7 million and the General Fund-State savings by $3.0 million..

Although the legislative budget would have lowered the rate that state agencies and institutions of higher education pay to the HCA, the average amount the HCA pays to health plans would have remained at about $314 per month per employee. The difference between the $304.31 provided in the legislative budget and the $314 paid to health plans would have been made up through the use of $11.6 million of an existing $19.8 million surplus in the Public Employees' and Retirees' Insurance Account. As a result, the legislative budget would not have resulted in any reduction in benefits or any increase in employee premium payments or point-of-service charges. The veto will also not result in any changes to benefits or employee charges.

Highway Capital Improvement Projects

1996 Supplemental Funds - $13.4 million

With greater highway needs and not enough money to address them, the House and Senate Transportation Committees have worked many hours to find efficiencies in the budget and cut administration and bureaucracy. From that savings, money has been shifted into additional highway programs and projects. While recognizing that more needs to be done, the committees have prioritized several Highway Capital Improvement Projects that merit immediate funding because of their contribution to economic development, public safety, or the efficient movement of people and goods. The following projects are included in the 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget. (Note: Amounts shown below represent the Washington State Department of Transportation component of projects. There may be other contributors.)

State Route 3 -- Belfair Bypass, Mason County - Environmental analysis and field survey of four possible alternative routes for a bypass of SR 3 past the city of Belfair. '96 Supplemental Funds - $50,000

State Route 3/305 -- Bond Road Connection - Provides preliminary engineering and initial construction funding for expansion from two-lane to four-lane highway. This project ranks high in the statewide mobility program. '96 Supplemental Funds - $475,000, Total - $5.5 M

State Route 14 and 192nd Ave. (Brady Road) Interchange - near Vancouver - Provides preliminary engineering (PE) for this project which will include construction of a modified diamond interchange and reconstruction of Brady Road north of SR 14. '96 Supplemental Funds - $200,000 for PE - Total PE - $1.05 M

I-90 at Issaquah (Sunset Interchange) - Provides preliminary engineering for this interchange which will be modified to provide full directional movement with I-90. '96 Supplemental Funds - $500,000 for PE

I-90 -- Sprague Avenue to Argonne Road - Spokane - Reconstruct, realign, and widen to provide additional lanes. '96 Supplemental Funds - $1 M, Total - $13 M

State Route 112 -- Susie Creek Bridge, west of Joyce, Clallam County - Replace existing structurally-deficient bridge with new bridge. '96 Supplemental Funds - $3.7M

State Route 501 -- Mill Plain Extension - Provides a second grade-separated access into the Port of Vancouver and Westside area of Vancouver. '96 Supplemental Funds - $3.5 M for construction, Total - $7.4 M

State Route 520 and N.E. 40th St. -- Bellevue/Redmond - Partial interchange revisions, including undercrossings and ramps. '96 Supplemental Funds - $1.9 M for construction, Total - $2.2 M

State Route 522/527 -- Main Street Project - Improves the existing intersection to relieve congestion that impacts the adjacent Bothell central business district. This will fulfill a commitment the Department of Transportation has with the city of Bothell. '96 Supplemental Funds - $924,000

Port of Tacoma Road -- Tacoma - Provides preliminary engineering for a grade separation project at the intersection of SR 509 and the Port of Tacoma Road. '96 Supplemental Funds - $1.1 M

High-Occupancy Vehicle (HOV) Lanes

"Diamonds in the Rough"

1996 Supplemental Funds - $14 million

As our highway system becomes more congested, especially in metropolitan areas, the availability of high-occupancy vehicle (HOV) lanes becomes even more important. These restricted lanes are for carpools, vanpools, buses, and motorcycles, and they allow for a smoother traffic flow in congested areas.

The proposed 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget focuses on three key HOV projects:

Interstate 5: 164th to State Route 526 - Located on a stretch of I-5 west of Mill Creek, this project would provide HOV lanes on both the north and southbound sections of the freeway.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $6.5 M, Total - $17 M

State Route 405: 160th to State Route 522 (Woodinville Interchange) - Located near Woodinville, this project would also provide north and southbound HOV lanes on SR 405.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $5.5 M, Total - $15.2 M

State Route 405: State Route 522 to State Route 527 - North and southbound HOV lanes would be provided on this section of SR 405 between the Bothell and Swamp Creek Interchanges. Funds only Stage 1 of two stages.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $2 M, Total - $24.1 M

Due to the heavy benefit to transit agencies and users, 1995-97 funding for these projects comes from the state's High Capacity Transportation Account ($7.8 M) and from the Central Puget Sound Public Transportation Account ($6.2 M).

Highway Safety Projects

1996 Supplemental Funds - $3 million

Money is included in the proposed 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget to initiate highway safety projects for the following state highways:

State Route 12, near Naches

State Route 395, North of Spokane

State Route 507, Lewis County

Winter Storm Damage

As a result of recent winter storms, $6.5 million is provided to the Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) to match federal emergency funds for damaged highways and rail. Up to $1.5 million of the funding is available for railroad flood damage, including damage to Blue Mountain Railroad facilities. Any funding not used to mitigate winter storm damage may be used for flood prevention projects. WSDOT also has $6.7 million in emergency bonds available for use.

Grant funding to match federal emergency funds (including FHWA and FEMA) is provided to cities and counties through the County Road Administration Board and the Transportation Improvement Board. The preliminary estimate of needed match is $7.6 million for this biennium.

Washington State Patrol 1996 Supplemental Funds - $7.7 million

Motorists throughout the state rely each day on the Washington State Patrol for highway safety, motorist assistance, and many other valuable services they perform. Unfortunately, our WSP troopers are among the lowest paid law enforcement officers in the state. The state trains our troopers, and then regrettably, often loses them to smaller enforcement agencies that pay more. Rather than spending money training new troopers, the Legislature wants to spend money retaining troopers.

- The proposed 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget would provide a 5 percent salary shift differential. It would also provide an educational incentive of 2 percent for those with two-year degrees and 4 percent for those with four-year degrees. $1.35 M
- In addition, 36 troopers are added to patrol Washington's state highways. $1.35 M
- The budget also appropriates funds to replace and upgrade the Washington State Patrol's microwave communication system. $5 M

Freight Rail/Ports

From the producer to the shipper to the markets, a smooth transportation system is essential to bring food and goods to the consumer, and to maintain a healthy economy. Both Puget Sound ports (Port of Seattle and Port of Tacoma) and those on the lower Columbia River (Kalama, Longview, and Vancouver) are experiencing tremendous growth. Management of this growth will require substantial investments in transportation infrastructure, including improving road access, eliminating bottlenecks and reducing conflicts between road traffic and trains. Improvements to these port areas in Western Washington will have a significant effect on the shipping of goods from areas in Eastern Washington that rely on these ports (e.g., apples, grain, agricultural products, and other goods).

The 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget provides funding for the following activities that address ports/freight rail systems:

Port of Seattle (Downtown South Seattle Surface Transportation and Freight Mobility Analysis)

The analysis will identify cost responsibilities and funding requirements for improvements to state-owned surface transportation structures located in south downtown Seattle (North Duwamish access area). This will include areas impacted by I-5 and I-90 access points, Washington State Ferries service, Port of Seattle operations, railroad operations, and traffic generated by the Kingdome and possibly the new baseball stadium.

The analysis will evaluate impacts to highway, rail, transit, and ferry operations resulting from projected increases in usage of these modes; consider impacts on local surface transportation caused by the siting of a major sports complex; identify container terminal access issues at the Port of Seattle; identify chokepoints in rail operations in the north Duwamish access area; and evaluate grade separations required for increased rail and truck operations in the affected area.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $400,000

Port of Tacoma

The analysis will identify future rail, truck, and local traffic circulation patterns within the Port of Tacoma.

Specifically, the study will look at taking advantage of reopening Stampede Pass; evaluate truck access to and from I-5, I-705, SR 509, and SR 167; identify necessary grade separations of rail corridors and truck arterials, and alternatives to grade separations; analyze potential rerouting of East 11th Street east of the Puyallup River; examine truck and rail access to the new Blair Waterway marine terminals; and evaluate rail access improvements to the Burlington Northern Santa Fe and Union Pacific mainlines.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $400,000

City of Auburn

The city of Auburn will examine the impacts of rail transportation through the city, including potential impacts from the reopening of the Stampede Pass rail corridor. The evaluation will be coordinated with the Port of Tacoma, the cities of Tacoma, Federal Way, and Algona, and other affected jurisdictions participating in the Port of Tacoma analysis described above.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $75,000

Ports of Kalama, Longview and Vancouver (Southwest Washington Ports)

The analysis will identify factors affecting transportation of bulk cargo (grain) and merchandise to export terminal facilities along the Columbia River at Kalama, Longview, and Vancouver.

Specifically, the study will identify surface transportation improvements necessary to improve local traffic patterns; identify necessary funding requirements for each of these southwest ports to improve local surface conditions; analyze existing rail connections and rail-to-barge facilities and allocate cost responsibility for necessary improvements; describe typical movement of grain from elevators to export terminal facilities and identify existing obstacles to the efficient movement of grain; and allocate cost responsibilities for necessary improvements to Columbia River ports.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $200,000

Cross State Freight Rail

Funding is provided from the Transportation Fund and the federal Transportation Enhancement Program toward purchase of the Milwaukee Road corridor east of Ellensburg. Converting this land back to rail use, in conjunction with the reopening of the Stampede Pass rail corridor, will improve cross-state freight rail service.

'96 Supplemental Funds - $2 M

Intercity Passenger Rail

Ridership and revenues for state-supported intercity passenger rail service have exceeded projections. Revenues for the Seattle-Vancouver, B.C. Talgo Service (Mt. Baker International) have exceeded any prior Amtrak experience for new service. The Mt. Baker International service began on May 26, 1995. Between that time and September, ridership was at 88 percent of capacity. May through September revenues recovered 88.2 percent of billed operating costs.

The Mt. Adams run between Seattle and Portland had approximately 79,000 riders in 1995, a 9 percent increase over the previous year. Revenues recovered 54 percent of billed operating expenses. Billed operating costs to the state were 25 percent lower than original estimates.

Because fare box revenue is supporting a greater share of operating costs, the need for state subsidies is reduced. This allows the state to use its money elsewhere within the rail passenger program at a later date.

The proposed 1996 Supplemental Transportation Budget reduces state subsidies for intercity passenger rail service by $2 million.

'96 Supplemental Funds - Reduced by $2 M

City/County/Transit Grant Programs

County Road Administration Board (CRAB)

Transportation Improvement Board (TIB)

1996 Supplemental Funds $58.6 million *

CRAB - Rural Arterial Trust Account (RATA) - $20.0 million is provided for the improvement of county roads throughout Washington State.

TIB - Urban Arterial Trust Account (UATA) - $4.3 million is made available for urban preservation projects. Construction on these projects is on a first come-first serve basis.

TIB - Transportation Improvement Account (TIA) - $30.0 million is included for multijurisdictional urban improvement projects. Construction on these projects is on a first come-first serve basis.

TIB - Public Transportation Systems Account (PTSA) - $0.8 million is included for transit-related projects outside the Central Puget Sound area.

TIB - Central Puget Sound Public Transportation Account (CPSPTA) - $3.5 million is included for transit-related projects in King, Pierce, Snohomish, and Kitsap counties.

* Includes grant funding, as needed, to help cities and counties match federal emergency funding (including FHWA and FEMA) for winter storm and flood damage.

Other Budget Highlights

Public-Private Initiatives in Transportation Program - Funding for this program is restricted to SR 16 (Tacoma Narrows) and park and ride lot projects. Additional bond funding of $11.2 million is provided to proceed on the SR 16 project.

Licensing Application Migration Project (LAMP) - An appropriation of $14.9 million is provided to the Department of Licensing to continue work on this project which will improve storage, accessibility, and compatibility of driver, vehicle, and vessel records.

Transit Governance, Finance, and Service Analysis - The budget provides $250,000 to examine critical transit issues.

Horse Race Track - A General Fund appropriation of $1.4 million is provided for the Auburn Horse Race Track. An additional $3.6 million is appropriated for this purpose from transportation accounts, making a total of $5.0 million available for the biennium.

1-800 Snowline - An appropriation of $25,000 is provided to fund toll-free mountain pass reports for the remainder of the 1995-97 biennium.
